Summer Ball and Auction of Promises

Shop online?

Here is an easy way to raise money and it costs you nothing! Visit www.easyfundraising.org.uk. It has the UK's best-known retailers including Ebay, Amazon, M&S and Argos. Just nominate Sytchampton PTA as your cause and a percentage from every purchase will be donated to the school.

Don't leave it to 'fete'.....

...and please don't leave it to others. The school's Summer Fete is a month away and we are looking to you for support again. It is on Sunday 9th June from 2pm. We are having an Eco-Warrior theme this year. We are asking the children to come dressed in a 'green' theme using recycled materials, with a prize for the best outfit. All the normal stalls will be there including the beer and wine! We're also hoping to have the pony rides again and introduce an animal petting area. Please help us in any way you can. We need volunteers to run the stalls and help set up and we will also be asking you to sell raffle tickets. For the crafty types we are looking for volunteers to help us make newspaper bunting and if you have a gazebo we could borrow, we would love to hear from you. This year we are also inviting any parents who run their own business to have a stall too. Please see Gillian or any member of the PTA to get involved. Everyone please keep your fingers and toes crossed for a dry day!

Ginny – could be just the tonic!

This Saturday (11th May) performer Ginny Davis will be at Sytchampton Community Centre. Please support this night of comedy, which promises to be a comedic look at the life of a modern, midlife mum. Think this is going to be something many of us can relate to!! It is called 'Ten Days...that shook the kitchen' and was a sell-out at the Edinburgh Festival. This is a different and new event for the PTA. It is just £10. Doors open at 7.30pm for an 8.00pm start. Still not convinced? Visit www.ginnydavis.com to read the amazing reviews.

Plans for our summer ball and auction of promises have been finalised. As we hope you are aware we are using this event to help fund the remodelling and updating of an area inside of the school. The event's on Thursday 18th July at Worcestershire County Cricket Club. Tickets are £37.50 which includes a 3

Auction of promises

course meal, coffee, 2 bottles of wine per table of 10, a Next goodie bag each and live music from "A Dog named Steve." If that wasn't enough there is an opportunity to bid on an amazing selection of promises including a Land Rover experience, 2 made to measure sofas, sporting memorabilia and experiences, a family day out, a massage and much much more. The full list will be on the school website closer to the event. Please join in our special event. Tickets are on sale now—please contact Lisa Smith on 07971 720405. You can pay by cash or cheque.
